

Alachua County Climate Festival: Tentative Agenda

Saturday, November 15, 2025 at the Alachua County UF/IFAS Extension Office

(Registration at Eventbrite: tinyurl.com/Climate-Festival; Climate Action Plan: tinyurl.com/Climate-Initiatives)

Time	Session	Description
8:15 (45 mins)	Registration and breakfast; Exhibitor Tables Open	Light breakfast and coffee with exhibitors. Please bring a reusable mug to reduce waste!
9:00 (10 mins)	Welcome Address
9:10 (25 mins)	Overview of Alachua County's Climate Action Plan (CAP) & Icebreaker	The Resiliency Office at the Environmental Protection Department will give an overview of the Climate Action Plan and what it means for the community
9:35 (35 mins)	Panel 1: Municipal Leaders' Climate, Resiliency, Sustainability Initiatives	Local municipal leaders will share what their cities and towns are doing to address climate, resiliency, and sustainability
10:10 (15 mins)	Star Center Theater Youth Performance	Youth will perform a story of Alachua County's journey to climate resiliency
10:25 (15 mins)	Break
10:40 (40 mins)	Keynote on Climate and Food Systems – We Are Eating the Earth	Hear from Michael Grunwald, author of "We Are Eating the Earth" about the challenges and opportunities to address climate change and resiliency in the food system
11:20 (35 mins)	Panel 2: Alachua County Agricultural Systems and Climate Resiliency	Members of the local agricultural system will discuss how their work interacts with climate resiliency
11:55 (15 mins)	Ceremonial Tree Planting	County Commissioners will signify acceptance of the Climate Action Plan with a tree planting at the Florida-Friendly Landscaping "Inspiration Garden"
12:10-3:00 (~3 hrs)	Lunch, visit exhibitors, food trucks	Stop by interactive demonstrations showcasing climate resiliency strategies from community organizations doing the work and grab lunch from food trucks.